

Evan & Shaun

5.31.2014

THE MILLS HOUSE HOTEL

Photography: Emily March Photography

Evan & Shaun first crossed paths at a Young Life Bible study and while they've yet to come to an agreement on the details of their first encounter, neither could deny the obvious connection. After a year and a half of dating, the couple took a trip to Charleston where Shaun surprised Evan with a romantic proposal along the Battery.

With all of their ties to the Lowcountry, Evan & Shaun knew a Charleston wedding was the right choice for their late May affair. The destination couple decided on an intimate ceremony at the French Huguenot Church. The bridesmaids wore Bill Levkoff dresses in Petal Pink and Evan charmed in a strapless gown with a sweetheart neckline (and pockets!). The men went with a classic Southern look by sporting navy suits, white bow ties, pocket squares and cotton boutonnières.

The reception took place at The Mills House Hotel where guests dined on traditional Lowcountry cuisine and enjoyed quality Bourbon. Evan kept the table décor simple with centerpieces of pink, white and green flowers, surrounded by succulents, mercury glass and milk jars full of cotton. As the evening came to a close, the couple hopped into a pedi-cab and waved goodbye to their family and friends!

Vendors

Ceremony Venue: French Huguenot Church // Florist: OK Florist // Bridal Shop: New York Bride & Groom (Charlotte, NC) // Bridesmaids Dresses: Bill Levkoff // Groom & Groomsman's Suits: Jos. A Bank // Groom's Bow Tie: Xoelle // Groom's Pocket Square: Lauren Perkin // Cake: Logan Pollard // Bar & Catering: The Mills House Hotel // Rentals: Snyder Rentals // Reception Band: Big Baby Band // Koozies: Rook Design Co., designed by the Bride // Invitations & Programs: Designed by the Bride // Hair & Makeup: PaperDolls // Rehearsal Dinner: Harbour Club // Rings: Bride - Benjamin Private Jewelers (Charlotte, NC), Groom - Handmade // Officiant: Justin Robillard